[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] . Ramirez reportedly has described Mexico as a place where he can work without problems . . . because semirefined cocaine base and finished cocaine hydrochloride weigh about the same, transportation of base to Mexico poses few additional hurdles to traffickers seeking to process final cocaine there . . . nonetheless, most Colombian cocaine shipments to Mexico continue to be in the form of hydrochloride. [REDACTED]

Colombia's Senate approved bill last week allowing extradition of nationals but excluding retroactive actions, probably due to pressure from narcotics traffickers . . . Foreign Minister and Justice Minister noted drug traffickers pressured senators to block extradition in bill, [REDACTED] . . . although bill still needs to be approved by a committee and full House of Representatives, [REDACTED] believes retroactivity probably will remain excluded . . . if bill passes without retroactivity, Bogota unable to extradite drug traffickers such as jailed Cali cartel leaders Miguel and Gilberto Rodriguez Orejuela. [REDACTED]

United Kingdom's Ambassador to Colombia and Minister of State for Latin American Relations observing illegal crop eradication last week in southwest when FARC rebels' gunfire hit plane involved in spraying, according to press reporting . . . pilot slightly injured . . . in past 12 months, 30 US Department of State-owned aircraft, 29 of which were involved in spraying activity, attacked in Colombia, [REDACTED] . . . no indication so far that rebels targeting the British officials. [REDACTED]
